Budget Monitoring Report

Members' attention is drawn to the email and attachments previously circulated on 19th April 2004 relating to the budget monitoring report which was considered by the Cabinet on the 30th March (a copy of the report is attached for co-opted members only). If members have any questions concerning this (relating to areas covered by this Committee), they are asked to direct them to the relevant Director or Mark Sheldon. Should following this any member consider an issue warrants further consideration, this should be notified to the Chairman so it can be considered by the Committee under the future agenda items section of this meeting.
