10	There are not many examples of commissioning at district council level, if the council does not adapt best practice from elsewhere to suit a two tier area there is a risk that the commissioning approach may not deliver the outcomes expected	Peter Woolley	3	3	9	Beacons are developed by setting best practice. There are a number of examples where the commissioning approach has been embedded in unitaries and other public agencies – and a number of researched works on the subject at both national and local level that will inform our approach. This coupled to good risk management will significantly reduce this risk.	Peter Woolley	Ongoing to 2012
