

Below is the amenity offered from our landing window, this is what we see everytime we go up and down our stairs. This is our neighbourhood as we know and love it and this is what we stand to lose forever if permission were granted.

This page is intentionally left blank