The risk				Original risk score (impact x likelihood)			Managing risk
Risk ref.	Risk description	Risk Owner	Date raised	Impact 1-4	Likelihood 1-6	Score	Control	Action	Comments as at August 2016
	If O&S does not take an active role in the major change programmes it may lose its opportunity to influence the scrutiny arrangements in any new proposed ways of working	Chair of O&S	21/09/2015	3	3	9	Reduce	O&S to include scrutiny of change programmes in its workplan and ensure it is consulted on any future scrutiny arrangements	Member seminars have been held at appropriate times and the committee are due to undertake a Q&A on 2020 with the Cabinet Member Corporate Services in September 2016, before the business case for a Local Authority Company is considered by Cabinet and Council in October 2016.
	If any new arrangements are not supported by a change in culture across members and officers they may not be successful in delivering the outcomes required.	Rosalind Reeves	27/9/11	3	3	9	Reduce	Get members and officers buy in during the review by seeking their views and ideas. Seek advice on cultural change during the next phase.	There is now a much better understanding of the new scrutiny arrangements by officers and members who have been involved in scrutiny task groups and the relationship between Cabinet and scrutiny has been developed. Training was held for new members following the May 2016 elections and further Officer training will be organised in due course.
	If the council cannot dedicate resources to support the scrutiny process	Rosalind Reeves	1/12/11	3	2	6	Accept	Optimise the use of existing resources in the new arrangements	The importance of facilitation support from Democratic Services for scrutiny task groups has been highlighted by members as a success factor. Democratic Services resources are then the O&S process will not be fully effective.								limited so members will need to carefully prioritise all scrutiny task group reviews to ensure they make optimum use of the resources available. This was reinforced by the LGA peer review team in 2015 who suggested that the scrutiny work plan should focus on high priority areas given the limited resources available.

	If the task groups operate outside of the democratic process, then scrutiny could become disjointed and progress difficult to control and track.	Rosalind Reeves	1/12/11	3	2	6	Accept	Guidance to officers supporting task groups on keeping documentation and reporting back to Democratic services.	See note above. Task groups facilitated by officers outside democratic services have sometimes been less well documented and more difficult to track progress but officers have been encouraged to adopt standard procedures and good practice. This has been assisted by the production of a scrutiny guide available on the intranet.
	If members do not put themselves forward for task groups the workload could be unevenly shared across members and be a source of potential conflict or result in task groups not having the right skill mix.	Groups Leaders	1/12/11	3	3	9	Reduce	Utilise the skills audit  Group Leaders to manage, monitor and encourage participation  Task groups to maintain records of attendance	Members have been putting themselves forward for task groups but this still tends to be a similar set of members and in some cases the Members' Skills audit has been useful in identifying topics which individual members may be interested in or have specialist knowledge about. Still though, not all members respond and we need to understand why.
	If scrutiny does not have any dedicated budget it will be difficult to promote public involvement and	Council	1/12/11	2	3	6	Accept	Utilise relevant project budgets  Consider allocating small budget to O&S as	Scrutiny does not have a dedicated budget but this has not been a significant issue to date. It could become more of an issue if O&S wanted to buy in some outside engagement							part of budget round	expertise at any point.
