Summary of the Terms and Conditions of the Premises Licence

1. The premises licence will run in perpetuity unless:

- the secretary of state prescribes a period after which the licence will expire under section 191 of the Gambling Act 2005.
- the licence holder surrenders the licence under section 192 of the Gambling Act 2005.
- the licence lapses under section 194 of Gambling Act 2005.
- the licence is revoked under section 193 of Gambling Act 2005.

2. The premises licence applies only in relation to the premises specified in Part 2 of the licence and may not be varied so that it applies to any other part of the premises (except in the case of a converted casino premise licence)

3. The premises licence authorises the premises to be used for the operation of providing facilities for betting.

4. The premises licence is subject to:

- any conditions specified on the face of the licence as being attached under section

169(1)(a) of the Gambling Act 2005;

- any other conditions attached to the licence by virtue of regulations made under sections 167 and 168 of the Gambling Act 2005 (other than any conditions under section 168 which have been excluded by the licensing authority); and
- any conditions attached to the licence by virtue of specific provisions of the Gambling Act 2005.

5. In particular, it is a condition of the premises licence under section 185 of the Gambling Act 2005 that the holder keeps the licence on the premises and arranges for it to be made available on request to a constable, enforcement officer or local authority officer. The holder of the licence commits an offence if he fails to comply with this condition.

Guidance Notes

1. The name or names should be those given in Part 1 of the premises licence.
2. The address of the person or organisation should be the address given in Part 1 of the premises licence.
3. The details entered here should be the details given in Part 2 of the premises licence. Note that these details will normally be the address of the premises, but they may be a description of the nature and location of the premises if no address is available. In the case of a vessel, the name and country of registration of the vessel should also be included.
4. If the licence is in respect of a vessel, the place where the vessel is situated or moored for the purposes of the premises licence should be entered here. This place will be the place given in Part 2 of the relevant premises licence. If the premises licence is not in respect of a vessel, this entry in the summary should be left out.
