	This Council notes that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>· On 1 April 2022, Ofgem increased the energy price cap by 54%</li><li>· In light of the increased energy price cap, the average standard tariff energy bill will increase by £693 per year. The average pre-pay meter energy bill will increase by £708 per year (Ofgem, 2022)</li><li>· On 6 April 2022, the Government increased National Insurance by 1.25 percentage points, which is projected to cost the average family an additional £108 per year</li><li>· The Government has suspended the pensions 'triple lock' for 2022/23, meaning that Cheltenham's pensioners will see a rise of 3.1% this year (instead of 8.3% under the triple lock formula). This year, this will cost Cheltenham pensioners on the full new state pension an average of £487, and those on the full basic state pension an average of £373 (TUC, 2022)</li><li>· Last year Cheltenham Foodbank distributed 3,777 three-day emergency food supplies given to people in crisis.</li></ul> • Council notes the news that following calls by the Liberal Democrats last October for a windfall tax on energy companies, the Government has belatedly introduced one. This Council therefore declares a 'Cost of Living Emergency' and calls on the Government to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Immediately reduce the standard rate of VAT from 20% to 17.5% for one year, saving the average household a further £600 this year.</li><li>2. Re-introduce the pensions triple lock to support pensioners.</li><li>3. Immediately use revenue from the windfall tax on energy companies to help Cheltenham families with their energy bills.</li></ol> Further, Council asks officers to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Continue this authority's excellent track record of promptly distributing emergency funding to those in need.</li><li>• Investigate how to further support existing initiatives aimed at supporting those in need, including the Cheltenham Food Network and No Child Left Behind.</li><li>• Investigate with partners, including The Cheltenham Trust, Cheltenham Borough Homes and others, what can be done to further support struggling Cheltenham people.</li></ul>
