

Live Music Description

The aim is to promote acoustic, soft background style musicians. For example, musicians playing (acoustic country). The applicant has stated: "The main point of applying for the live music part of the licence was to really incorporate the 'community' aim of our business into every aspect. The concept they are looking to achieve is customers eating some small plates of local food, on ceramics made by their in-house Cheltenham based ceramicist listening to a local young performer."
