

Appendix 1

In accordance with Section 15 of the Council's Collections Development Policy, (approved October 2019), the following items have been identified for deaccessioning from the Council's Collections by The Cheltenham Trust, to be written off in accordance with the following criteria:

Deaccessioning requests are based on at least one of the following criteria:

Rational for deaccessioning	Code
Poor condition	A
Duplicate	B
Surplus to requirements	C
Health and safety risk	D
Not relevant to collections (see Collections Development Plan)	E
No provenance or context (archaeology)	F
Repatriation (for world cultures)	G

Taxidermy items to be disposed of due to health and safety risks

Brief Description	Accession number(s)	Rationale for deaccessioning	Notes
Bickbuck blue bull head	1920.229.2	D, A	All these items are classed as a health and safety hazard due to the presence of toxic chemicals such as arsenic, mercury and copper.
Head of an Indian wild boar on a mount	1920.229.3	D, A
African Warthog skull	1920.229.4	D, A
Black buck horns	1920.229.6	D, A
Buffalo horns	1922.316	D, A
Framed snakeskins	1926.38.3	D, A
Chough	1932.22	D, A
Dipper	1932.42	D, A
Touracoa	1935.250	D, A
Indian paradise flycatcher	1935.250	D, A
Assam bird x 4	1935.250	D, A
Dusky blue flycatcher	1935.250	D, A
Foreign bird of prey	1935.250	D, A
Shrike Reed bunting Dipper Hedge sparrow Part of bird Rustic bunting Japan Fowl, male Weasel Swan Grebe Antelope skull on a plaque 2 Black buck skulls Warthog snout and teeth Miniature deer skull on mount Antelope skull x 2 Tail of rhinoceros Small antelope skull Antelope horns on a plaque	Numbers no longer legible, these items may or may not have been accessioned, but in case they have been they have been entered here for permission to dispose	D, A

Water buffalo horns  Hartebeest skull  Antelope head x 5  Buffalo skull on mount x 2  Antelope skull on a plaque from Africa  black rhinoceros tail, possibly only the mount?  only a mount with nail through front  Skull of bush buck on a mount  2 horns of a domestic long horn  Mount with hair residue from taxidermy specimen
Deer skull on a mount	Loaned by Mr E C Daubeny 16 Feb 1927	D, A	These specimens are so disintegrated it is impossible to identify them with any certainty. Possibilities are listed on the detailed list held by the curatorial team.
Miniature deer skull on a mount  Small antelope/ and deer skull  Indian black buck skull on mount  Antelope skull on mount  Eland horns on a plaque x2  Antelope horns  Younger wildebeest skull (gnu)  Cape Eland head  Oribi antler trophy  Black buck horns  Antelope head  Gnu, wildebeest head on mount from Urquhart loan  Black buck head with mount  Wildebeest head	Loaned by Major E W Urquhart, 20 November 1910	D, A	There is no paperwork for these loans. No staff memory of them (going back to 1975). Only record is the label attached to the remnants of the objects. In the 1990s, the then curators thoroughly researched Major Urquhart, attempting to trace his family, with no success.

Appendix 2

In accordance with Section 15 of the Council's Collections Development Policy, (approved October 2019), the following items have been identified for deaccessioning from the Council's Collections by The Cheltenham Trust, to be written off in accordance with the following criteria:

Deaccessioning requests are based on at least one of the following criteria:

Rational for deaccessioning	Code
Poor condition	A
Duplicate	B
Surplus to requirements	C
Health and safety risk	D
Not relevant to collections (see Collections Development Plan)	E
No provenance or context (archaeology)	F
Repatriation (for world cultures)	G

Disposal via direct gift to another accredited museum

Brief Description	Accession number(s)	Rationale for deaccessioning	Notes
Fossil, a fragment of fossilised rhinoceros bone, Pleistocene, from the Cornford Collection	1978_269_2	E	From Arthur's Cave in the Forest of Dean, taken to Dean Heritage Museum on 4 November 2022.  Permanent move, awaiting deaccession and formal transfer paperwork to Dean Heritage Museum
1978_269_3, Fossil, two fragments of fossilised bone, Pleistocene	1978_269_3	E
Antler, a fossilised red deer antler, proximal end of left antler, cervus elaphus linn	1978_308	E
1978_269_1, Fossil, one fossilised bone	1978_269_1	E
Bone, one foot bone of a cave bear	1978_277	E
Bone, one bone from a bison	1978_279	E
Tooth, one horse tooth	1978_278	E
Tooth, one animal tooth	1978_70	E
Teeth, two animal teeth	1978_276	E
Tooth, one animal canine tooth	1904_1_4	E
Teeth, three woolly rhinoceros teeth	1978_273_1	E
Tooth, one animal tooth	1978_273_2	E
Teeth, four animal teeth from Hyena Spelaea	1978_271	E
Teeth, five animal teeth, Cervus, including two molars	1978_268	E
Bone, a fragment of radius bone from a rhinoceros	1978_280	E
Bone, one jawbone with two teeth attached, from a hyena	1904_1_3	E
Tooth, one animal tooth	1978_274	E

Teeth, two teeth from an ancient ox	1978_301	E
four animal tooth fragments and one half of a pottery whorl	1978_275 x5	E
an antler fragment, Cervus	1978_272	E
Bone, an animal bone fragment	1904_1_2	E
Bell, originally used at Charlton Kings Fire Station, but a mass produced example. (We have a much better locally made example from Leckhampton)	2001.18	E	At Milestones Museum, Hampshire County Museums Service, request to have as permanent transfer rather than loan. It has been there for 40 years.
Settle from Eyam, Derbyshire, originally belonging to a local family called Mompesson. (value of £8,000 at last valuation)	1954.13	E	Currently on loan to Eyam Museum. Very important connection to a family in Eyam. No Cheltenham connection at all.